Signature of host representative authorised to agree to conference conditions

This is one of three forms. Please read the terms and conditions for hosting an International Kinesiology College conference, including the Stall Holder's Agreement and Conference Speaker's Guidelines. Applications will only be reviewed by the Executive Board of the International Kinesiology College Ltd when conference terms and conditions are agreed to by the host committee, signed by their representative, and have the endorsement of a member of the IKC or one of its schools.

After the application is approved, the International Kinesiology College Pty Ltd. will promote the conference on its website, and through its international network of faculty and affiliated associations.

Guidelines for conference speakers and stall holders at your conference are set out in forms two and three of this application.

Thank you for supporting kinesiology world wide through international conferences.
